

Middle Years Terminology

Journeyperson (formerly journeyman) is an individual who has worked at a trade for several years, passed all examinations, and has been issued a Journeyperson Certificate of Qualification from the Saskatchewan Apprenticeship and Trade Certification Commission (SATCC)

Indenture is the act of signing an apprenticeship contract with an employer or joint training board and the Director of Apprenticeship.

Designated trade is an occupation designated under The Apprenticeship and Trade Certification Act. Designation of an occupation means that legislated rules apply; and that standards, technical training and certification examinations are established.

Apprentice is an individual who is working in a designated trade and has signed a Contract of Apprenticeship with their employer and the SATCC.

Compulsory trade is a trade in which no person may work unless they are a registered apprentice or a journey person.

Certificate of Completion is a document issued to individuals who have completed all levels of technical training, have accumulated enough hours, and passed the certification examination.

Red Seal is the common name of the national certification program which assists workers seeking employment in any province or territory in Canada.

Pre-Employment Programs are full-time training programs designed for individuals who have no job or skills in a trade, but would like to take training to improve their chances of finding a job.
