OH&S Regulations

Mobile Crane Operator and its sub-trades are voluntary. Saskatchewan Occupational Health & Safety (OH&S) regulations require a person to be an apprentice or journeyperson to operate a mobile crane. This requirement is enforced by OH&S. The OH&S regulations refer to the Saskatchewan Apprenticeship and Trade Certification Commission Regulations for the scope/definition of a mobile crane and the sub-trade designations.

PLEASE SELECT ONE OF THE CHOICES ABOVE AND PROVIDE THIS INFORMATION WHEN COMPLETING THE APPLICATION FOR APPRENTICESHIP ON MYATC.
